MEMORANDUM

TO: Consolidated Application Main Contacts
Michigan Electronic Grants System (MEGS) Authorized Officials

FROM: Michael Radke, Ph.D., Director
Office of Field Services

SUBJECT: 2012-13 Office of Field Services Applications and Estimated Allocations

The Michigan Department of Education (MDE), Office of Field Services (OFS) has posted a schedule explaining the 2012-13 OFS Application process. Consolidated Application program contacts should download the schedule from the MDE website.

Conservatively estimated 2012-13 allocations for the following grant programs are available on the MDE website to help Local Education Agencies (LEAs) plan for the coming year:

- Title I, Part A – Improving Basic Programs
- Title I, Part C – Regular Migrant Program
- Title II, Part A – Teacher and Principal Training and Recruiting
- Title III, Part A – Limited English Acquisition (LEP)

Information is available on the MDE website for the following programs for which estimated allocations have not been provided:

- Title I, Part D – Prevention/Intervention for Delinquent Children/Youth
- Title III, Part A – Immigrant Program
- Title VI, Part B – Rural and Low-Income School (RLIS) Program

Several program allocations are based on Michigan School Data System (MSDS) data. LEAs should work with their staff to ensure that student data is submitted accurately and completely.
